Visionary Gleam

A Selection of Prose and Poetry

Board of Editors

Visionary Gleam brings together some of the best writings in the English language. Designed for the F.Y.B.A. Compulsory English students of Pune University, it helps the readers enhance their language skills. To make the learning process easy for students each passage is provided with brief information about the author, the passage itself and the glossary followed by questions. The additional feature of this anthology is incorporation of the grammar component for the enrichment of students' linguistic competence.

The students are exposed to the vast ocean of English literature, covering a wide range, from British and American literature; sufficient number of Indian texts have also been included.
